

MISSION OF THE SAU SUMMER SPORT CAMPS

- To provide quality instruction in a positive learning environment that will result in the enhancement of individual and team skills and strategies.
- To provide a positive camp experience for young athletes by encouraging sportsmanship and fair play.

WHAT TO BRING

DAY CAMPS

Day campers should bring a lunch, sports equipment and money for drinks and snacks (optional).

BOARDING CAMPS

Basketball boarding camp check-in is between 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. on the designated day in the Lowell Residence lounge.

Girl's volleyball and basketball boarding camp check-in is between 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. at the SAU Fieldhouse (volleyball campers) or Lowell Hall (girl's basketball). Volleyball campers (including commuters), must attend afternoon and evening sessions on Sunday. Commuter price includes lunch and dinner.

Boarding campers should bring sheets, blankets, pillow, fan, alarm clock, swimsuit, towels, wash cloths, toothbrush, deodorant, shampoo, soap, sports footwear; plenty of socks, shorts and T-shirts ($10-20 of spending money is suggested) A $20 room key deposit is required on check-in day for all boarding camps.

DIRECTIONS

The Spring Arbor University campus is located in Spring Arbor, Michigan, on Highway M-60 about seven miles west of Jackson. The University's athletic facilities and Lowell Residence Hall are located one block north of M-60 on the backside of campus.
